RESPONDENT/APPELLANT'S MOTION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT
ON HEARING FEBRUARY 13, 2007

BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

NOTICE OF HEARING

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

NOW COMES Respondent/Appellant Julie Risch, by and through her attorney Carol Holmes of the Law Office of Carol Holmes, P.C., and for her motion for oral argument for the Hearing set for February 13, 2007, states as follows:

1. On August 26, 2005, Respondent/Appellant filed her brief on appeal, requesting oral argument on the cover sheet.

2. The clerk of this court has informed Respondent/Appellant that her request for oral argument will not be honored because her brief was not timely filed.
3. Respondent/Appellant's brief was not timely filed because while Respondent/Appellant's counsel worked very diligently to prepare the brief, she simply was not able to get it done and delivered to the Court by 5:00 p.m. on August 25, 2005. The brief was submitted to the Court of Appeals at 9:00 a.m. on August 26, 2005. Respondent/Appellant's counsel regrets not complying with the date for filing her brief, and asks this Honorable Court of Appeals to allow her a brief time to address the issues, orally, on February 13, 2007.
4. Respondent/Appellant believes that oral argument by both parties will assist the court in deciding this case.

WHEREFORE, Respondent/Appellant asks the court to grant this motion.

Respectfully submitted:
